

THE IMMIGRATION PROBLEM & BIBLICAL PROPHECY

By: William Finck

The importance of a knowledge of history as a prerequisite for understanding Biblical prophecy cannot be overstated! Since the prophecies foretell of events concerning tribes and nations, and most of the Old Testament prophets wrote about 2500 years ago, how can one discern their writings without a knowledge of history since then? Lacking any basic understanding of history, today's churchgoers and Bible readers have been led to misidentify the tribes of the Old Testament, and so they wander down all sorts of crooked paths, their beliefs and their faith clouded with the errors of judeo-churchianity.

While many good White Christian people strongly dislike the idea that our nation is currently being overrun with aliens, few dare define their arguments based on racial terms. Their 'pastors' would slander them as "unChristian", and the dumbed-down "politically correct" majority would label them as "racists". This is too much for most to bear, so they either remain silent, or resort to arguments over the differences between "legal" and "illegal" immigrants, "rule of law" and "national sovereignty". Yet in reality there is no political solution to these problems. America became a "bankrupt" nation not 20 years after our economy was handed over to the Jewish international bankers in 1913, and now has no "national sovereignty" whatsoever! The bankers want the Mexicans and other aliens to stay here, in order to keep their Ponzi-scheme based economy afloat, and so they will arrange it that the aliens remain. Soon the Congress will be browbeaten into passing a bill that few shall dare to call an "amnesty", yet that's what it will amount to, and suddenly all the "illegals" will become so-called "legals".

At this very time, it is not only America being overrun with alien peoples, but every White Adamic nation on the face of the earth. Be it Britain, Canada, Australia, Germany, Russia, or France, aliens of one "third-world" race or another have been flooding into White nations in ever-increasing numbers. Yet there is no political solution to this problem, and none of the people of these inundated nations, all so-called "democracies", were ever asked beforehand their opinion on the matter. Rather, for the past few decades, we have been conditioned by the mass media, organized religions, and educational institutions to accept "diversity" and "multiculturalism" as inevitable reality. The very orchestration of all these establishments, in company with the immigration policies of the western bureaucracies, by itself reveals the hidden hand operating behind the scenes.

Concerning the ancient Israelites, to be overrun with aliens was one of the consequences of being disobedient to Yahweh our God (Lev. 26:14-46; Deut. 28:15-68). The removal and diminishing of the aliens is among the blessings of obedience to Yahweh (Lev. 26:3-13; Deut. 28:1-14). While the circumstances of today are somewhat different than they were for our ancient ancestors, the general causes and effects have not changed, and there are other prophecies which do forebode our situation today, yet require much background in history and precedent Biblical prophecy to understand. Only brief outlines can be given here.

From before the Exodus, about 1450 B.C., up until the Assyrian deportations of Israel, 741-676 B.C., many of the Israelites had been emigrating to the coasts of Europe, northern Africa, and the British Isles. The main body of the Israelites, however, who were deported by the Assyrians and resettled among the other Adamic nations of Mesopotamia and near Asia, spread north into Asia and Europe. Of these the greater number migrated west as the Keltic and Germanic tribes. This was the scattering and regathering of Israel foretold by the prophets.

That the Germanic tribes of Europe are Israel can be clearly demonstrated from Daniel ch. 2. Once the first four kingdoms of Daniel's vision here are understood, and it is realized that the Roman empire was Daniel's fourth kingdom, knowing that the Germanic tribes destroyed the Roman empire, then Dan. 2:44-45 unmistakably identifies these tribes as the true Kingdom of Yahweh, and among them only may we find Daniel's fifth and final kingdom.

While many of the inhabitants of the Roman Empire were Israelites themselves, along with Adamic Japhethites and other Semites (not to be confused with Jews), the Germanic tribes came to dominate Europe, and all of the northern European nations – including the English and French – sprung from elements of these tribes, along with the Japhethite Slavic nations to the east. These are, for the most part, the remnant of the White race today, and these are the true, legitimate Israel of the Bible, both New Testament and Old. These nations are properly "Christendom", for which see Isa. 45:3-4 and 62:2. The Israel nations of southern Europe, Africa, and Asia, along with the other Genesis 10 Adamic nations, were all destroyed long ago, overrun by aliens: the Arabs, Turks and Mongols. This was the flood of the serpent foretold at Rev. 12:15, and note Jer. 46:28.

As the tribes of dispersed Israel regathered in Europe, and remained there for many centuries, Europe was not a final destination for many of them: there were other prophecies which had to be fulfilled. It is North America which certainly seems to be the place described by Ezekiel in chapters 37 & 38. Other prophecies also seem to point to America as the future Zion and the "New Jerusalem" (i.e. Dan. 11:45). The further the children of Israel traveled from Palestine, the stronger a nation they became (Micah 4:1-8, esp. v. 7).

Isaiah ch. 56 is one prophecy concerning the regathering of Israel. In 56:8 the A.V. says "Yahweh God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, besides those that are gathered unto him", and note that others was added to the text, and surely cannot infer any others but Israelite "others". In Brenton's Septuagint the verse reads: "saith Yahweh that gathers the dispersed of Israel; for I will gather to him a congregation". The "outcasts of Israel" are the strangers of 56:3 and 6, the eunuchs and the dry tree. This is so because Israel was deported in punishment, cast off, estranged and alienated from Yahweh, but later reconciled by His sacrifice and the New Covenant (i.e. Eph. 2:12-19; Col. 1:20-22; 1 Pet. 2:9-11). While many weak, universalist pastors use Isa. 56:1-8 as an excuse to allow aliens into their congregations, they refuse to see that the New Covenant was made with only the houses, i.e. families, of Israel and Judah (Jer. 31:31-33; Rom 9:4; Heb. 8:8-13).

The “holy mountain” of Isa. 56:7 surely seems to be America, the Zion of Jer. 3:14. America was founded from “one of a city, and two of a family” out of the Christian nations of northern Europe. Many of the initial colonies here were founded by various Christian sects from Europe, who were seeking freedom of worship, making America a “house of prayer for all [Israelite] people”. This was never true of any other place in prior history. Everywhere beforetime, religious worship was oppressed and regulated by either the ‘Church’ or the ‘State’, something consciously avoided by our founders. The “burnt offerings” and “sacrifices” of this verse must, of course, be metaphors describing the toils of the American people. Compare the “holy mountain” phrase to Dan. 2:45, and know that America was initially comprised of mostly English, French, and German settlers: descendants of those same tribes which destroyed Rome.

Yet Yahweh our God surely foresaw that our ‘pastors’, His “watchmen” in Isa. 56:10, would misinterpret 56:1-8, as they do much of scripture in their own greed and ignorance. For 56:9-12 reads from the A.V.: “⁹ All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest. ¹⁰ His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. ¹¹Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter. ¹²Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.”

These dumb dogs are our universalist theologians and pastors, men such as “Bishop” John Spong. Because of them the beasts of the field, which are the non-Adamic races (i.e. Gen 9:5; Exod. 19:13; 22:19; Lev. 20:15-16; Heb 12:20), have been given the opportunity to “come to devour” the children of Israel! While most White men and women seem to know that it’s wrong to be allowing the aliens to overrun us, the pastors and churches tell us differently. The Romish catholic church was even one of the primary agitators and organizers of the demonstrations by illegal and other immigrants which recently took place across the country, along with various (purportedly dead) Communist organizations, and Latino supremacist groups such as La Raza. George W. Bush gave a televised speech on May 16th, 2006, which pleased La Raza so much that the extremist Latino group made many positive statements about the Bush immigration policy after it was outlined. Often, it’s so-called “Christian outreach” ministries bringing all the world’s alien scum into our formerly all-White communities. It may justly be termed a Purpose Driven Cancer. Surely we have no political solution to this dilemma, most of our own politicians in both major parties, and most of our ‘church’ leaders, being aligned against White Adamic civilization.

At Jeremiah 31:31 ff. we find the promise of a New Covenant made with the houses, families, of Israel and Judah. While this New Covenant was announced at the coming of Christ and the Apostolic period which followed, the final redemption of Israel has not yet occurred (i.e. Rom. 8:21-23). And so Jer. 31:31 ff. must be discussing the culmination of the New Covenant, and not its announcement, which is to occur at Christ's Second Advent (i.e. Rev. 21). That this interpretation is correct is manifest reading 31:34, and 31:40 for which compare Ezekiel ch. 39.

At Jer. 31:27-30, just before the prophecy concerning the New Covenant, we find the following: "²⁷ Behold, the days come, saith Yahweh, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. ²⁸And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith Yahweh. ²⁹In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. ³⁰But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge."

Surely since the "seed of man" (man, Strong's #120, adam) represents the White race, then the "seed of beast" must represent the non-Adamic races with which all of the Israel nations of the world are currently being sown. So these alien floods are a test from Yahweh. Yet that certainly does not clear the guilty of their crimes, those who would have the White race consumed by the aliens. For "every man that eateth the sour grape" shall die. That this eating of sour grapes here represents race-mixing is evident elsewhere in the Bible. At Jude 7, we see the sin of the people of Sodom was fornication, the pursuit of "strange" (Greek heteros, #2087, other or different) flesh. Paul often warns us against fornication. At Deut. 32:32 we see the "vine of Sodom" in comparison alongside "grapes of gall" whose "clusters are bitter". Hence the "strange vine" of the bad-fig jews, those of Judah whom mixed with the Canaanites, of Jeremiah 2:21 and 24:1-10. While race-mixing has always hurt the children which result from it, the day is coming when the race-mixers themselves shall be punished severely.

This is the time which we face today, just before the culmination of the New Covenant yet after Israel had been fully gathered and had risen to world domination (i.e. Dan. 7:27; cf. Isa. 63:18-19), and we have been in this period for at least 90 years now. Shortly after World War I, alien and mixed races began eclipsing White Europeans as the primary immigrants into America. Over the past several decades, the non-Adamic races have been pouring into all White nations in ever-increasing numbers. Certainly this must be what Jeremiah describes at 31:27.

Ezekiel ch. 38 surely describes America, which has consistently been the one land where so many of the world's aliens have desired to dwell. No other nation in world history has ever come close to the description given by Ezekiel at 38:8-12. America is the "land gathered out of many people", who were all initially of the Keltic and Germanic tribes, and so it is "the mountains of Israel" which were waste, the "desolate places that are now inhabited", and its people "gathered out of the [Adamic] nations". America is the "land of unwallled villages", full of much cattle and goods.

While the invasion of Gog and Magog and the Arab hordes into this land may yet culminate in an actual military invasion, such an event is not necessitated. Millions of Asians, Arabs and other aliens fitting the description of this chapter are already here, and many have been here for a long time. The mixed race "whites" (many of the Italians, Greeks, Spaniards and others), together with their jewish cousins, along with all of the other aliens here, and the negroes, may already have true Whites outnumbered. Sure, while the government census reports tell us that the nation is about 70% white, this excludes millions of undocumented Mexicans and Chinese. They also consider all of the Sicilians, Jews, and non-black Hispanics to be “white”, along with the Turks, Arabs and others. So the true percentage of White people in America is actually far less than 70%.

Paul, quoting Isaiah 54:1 repeats the prophet’s warning that Israel shall be outnumbered: “For it is written, ‘Be gladdened, barren who is not bearing; break fourth and shout, she who is not travailing; because many more are the children of the desolate than of she who has the husband’” (Gal. 4:27). And of course White women are not travailing in childbirth, having traded motherhood for careers and a lifestyle of hedonism. Remember this as the weekly news rags announce plummeting White birthrates. There was a news story on the radio recently, perhaps May 16th or 17th, 2006, that the Russian government is so alarmed over plummeting birthrates, they’re offering to pay Russian women to have children.

Yet at Luke 16:16-18 we have an assurance, that no matter who tries to force their way into the Kingdom of Yahweh (see Matt. 11:12), He will only accept Israel, “she who has the husband”, as His bride. In the end, it is only the twelve tribes of Israel who shall inherit the Kingdom: Rev. 19:1-10; 21:1-12; the nations descended from Abraham through Isaac and Jacob: Rev. 21:24-26.

And we Saxon Israelites have many other assurances. For no matter how hard our politicians and ‘churches’ try to supplant us with aliens, Dan. 2:44 states in part: “the kingdom shall not be left to other people”, and Dan. 7:27: “and the kingdom, and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him”.

Ezekiel 37:27-28 promises that Yahweh shall sanctify Israel: “My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And the heathen shall know that I Yahweh do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.” Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39 tell us that after the culmination of the invasion of America by our enemies, Yahweh Himself shall destroy every single one of them. Every single alien here shall be destroyed, and it will take the children of Israel 7 months to bury the bodies. From that point on, aliens shall not again sojourn among the children of Israel (Joel 3:11-17). So in spite of the liberals and miscegenists, all of the aliens among us shall be destroyed. Yet how many of the children of Israel shall be destroyed along with them?

Peter, writing in his first epistle to the elect, the sojourners scattered throughout various places in Anatolia, said: “But ye are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people ... Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of Yahweh: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy” (1 Pet. 2:9-10). Peter wrote this not to Jews, but to “lost” Greek and Keltic Israelites. 1 Pet. 2:9 is a purposeful reference to Exod. 19:5-6, and 1 Pet. 2:10 to Hosea 1:9-11. The word “holy”, ἅγιος (hagios, #39), is “devoted to the gods, sacred, holy” (Liddell & Scott) in secular pagan Greek, and so Thayer writes of the word: “set apart for God, to be, as it were, exclusively his”. No matter how long or how many of us resist, the children of Israel shall ultimately be a holy and separate people whether they like it or not. Since Isaac was placed on the altar by Abraham, and the fact that Yahshua Christ purchased us back (Redemption) after divorcing us, we have no choice but to become “ holy ”.

Likewise Paul, from my own translation, told the Philippians at 2:14-16: “ ¹⁴ Do all things apart from murmuring and disputing, ¹⁵ that you would be perfect and with unmixed blood, blameless children of Yahweh in the midst of a race crooked and perverted - among whom you appear as luminaries in the cosmos, ¹⁶ upholding the Word of Life for a boast with me in the day of Christ ...” by which Paul surely refers to His Second Advent.

At 2 Cor. 6:14-18, Paul warns us to separate ourselves from the unclean (where the A.V. has improperly added thing), because Christ has no accord with Beliar. Babylon is the word used to describe the world’s political, economic and religious systems at the end of the age. Both Beliar (or Belial), meaning worthlessness, and Babylon, from a word meaning confusion, are originally Hebrew words which are from root words which describe something mixed, for which see Strong’s Hebrew dictionary #s 894, 1101, 1097 and 1098. The mixed-race “children of Belial” (or “Beliar”) often caused trouble for the Old Testament Israelites, i.e. Deut. 13: 13; Jdgs. 19:22 and 20:13. Today’s religious, political & social organizations promote everything mixed, and strive to pollute everything not mixed! The doom of Babylon is foretold at Revelation chapters 17-18. At Rev. 18:4 the children of Israel are warned: “ Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues ”. With so much of Biblical prophecy fulfilled, should one dare think lightly of the balance? Truly, “ a friend of the world is the enemy of Yahweh ” (James 4:4). Indeed, what we observe today was forecast by the prophets!
